

PRAYER, VIRTUE AND DISCIPLESHIP: KEYS TO PASTORAL MINISTRY

An enriching ministry online course

May 9th, May 23rd and June 6th 2024 | 7pm (UK Time)

Speakers: Susan Muto, PhD & Lori McMahon

This course aims to enrich the pastoral ministry of participants and to make accessible to them the formative wisdom of Christian mystics and spiritual masters. The short course is therefore, suitable for a wide range of people: those who work in pastoral settings (hospitals, chaplaincies, prisons, in ministry) and those who are simply interested in understanding more about the spiritual life and pastoral ministry. The course will be delivered in three sessions configured thematically, and each will feature particular spiritual masters from the ancient, medieval and modern traditions including John Cassian, Augustine, Teresa of Avila, John of the Cross, Brother Lawrence of the Resurrection, Francis de Sales, and Thérèse of Lisieux.

Thursday 9th May 2024	Planting the Seeds: A LIFE OF PRAYER This session, “Planting the Seeds” offers formation and formative reading programmes dedicated to the cultivation of a Life of Prayer, particularly lectio divina. This session underscores the importance of a Life of Prayer as the seedbed for Christian conversion and action in the family and parish life.
Thursday 23rd May 2024	Tilling the Soil: A LIFE OF DISCIPLESHIP This session, “Tilling the Soil” underscores the need for cultivating a Life of Discipleship as we are called, committed and consecrated in Christ and His Church.
Thursday 6th June 2024	Thursday 23rd May 2024: Reaping the Harvest: A LIFE OF VIRTUE The third and final session offers the invitation to growth in a life of virtue, particularly those of humility, detachment, poverty of spirit, obedience, and fraternal charity.

COURSE FEE: £75

For more information: www.carmelite.uk.net/PrayerandVirtue

Or contact: programmes@carmelite.org.uk | 07849 596 572